Are you willing to transform your experience of the past?

In an atmosphere of love and acceptance and, you are invited to consciously reframe the experiences, which have held you bound, through an award winning film and a transformative workshop:

Friday – "Here's Looking at You, Kid" 7:00 – 9:00 pm

This Emmy Award winning film about Rob and Maggie Cole is a dynamic, moving documentary that won 1st place in every film festival in 1980 including New York, Chicago, Telluride and San Francisco. With sensitivity and humor, it tells their story following Rob's burn injury at the age of 7 and how they dealt with this staggering event. It provides a look into their hearts and the opportunity to look into yours.

Maggie presents the film now as a testimony to the evidence of healing that is possible in this human existence when we place our attention on the power and presence of the Truth that is alive and well in all of us. Don't miss this unique experience.

Saturday – “Revelation of Wholeness” 9:30 - 4:30

“The past is only alive when we bring it to the present moment”
Rev. Dr. Michael Bernard Beckwith

Maggie and Michael provide a dynamic, loving experience in which each participant has an opportunity to examine how we have held the past in place, given it power and may continue to be victims of it.

We explore the possibilities of experiencing wholeness, a reframing of our memory, a conscious choice and decision to see God’s presence at every point of our life, past and present, and know the Truth that sets us free. Freedom is our birthright; let us claim it NOW.

This exploration is lovingly articulated in a safe and compassionate atmosphere through music, prayer, meditation, a series of exercises, dialogue and processes facilitated to meet each participant where they are and hold them where they want to be. This is a place to let go and choose what you want to bring to the present moment.

“The weekend with Maggie Cole and Michael Gott was beautiful and transforming. Maggie's incredible loving heart and Michael's soul touching music are phenomenal gifts. Their level of integrity and intention inspired the group to have a truly moving experience. I am so very grateful I attended.”
