

“Who Do YOU Think You Are?”

An Experience presented by Maggie Cole, RScP

The response to this important question shapes our identity, as it is up to each one of us to define ourselves, to seek and embody the Truth within and claim it as our own. What are you saying about yourself and others?

In a safe, loving environment, we'll uncover the ways in which we have compared and competed with ourselves and each other, creating a sense of separation from the truly authentic expressions of Spirit we are.

Are you ready, willing to discover your true magnificence? Through a myriad of exercises and sharing opportunities created especially for this sacred work, we will look into the possibility of seeing each other and ourselves as God sees us. True transformation comes through our self-acceptance.

Maggie Cole, Practitioner and skilled facilitator, presents this experience at Asilomar in August 2000 and over 250 people participated in this life-changing journey. It will touch your heart as she brings authenticity, compassion, integrity and a sense of humor to create a space of willingness and acceptance.

Comments:

Your presence and pure delivery were the ingredients in the success of this workshop.

“The core of my essence was touched early on and opened me to a day of Divine unfoldment”.

From the first breath, I felt warmed and comforted by you. You set an accepting and loving tone which allowed all of us to cultivate a feeling of love and family”.

“Your love of God shines through, you are perfect for this work”.

“Thank you for helping me open my eyes, mind and heart to new ways of seeing and being in this life”.